Men's Study Group Has First Session

This is Sacramento Sunday at St. Andrew's, and celebrations of Holy Communion will be held at all three services, 7:30, 9:15, and 11 a.m. The regular monthly meeting of the Sunday School Teachers Association is scheduled for Tuesday, Oct. 4th, at 8 p.m. in the Education Hall. New officers, elected at the last meeting, will preside for the first time. The new slate of officers is as follows: president, Jack Cleveland; vice president, Mrs. Lee Wright; secretary, Mrs. Betty Gately, and treasurer, Mrs. Terry Mitoma. Director of religious education at St. Andrew's is Mrs. Jessica Jelf. The newly formed Rector's Study Group for Men held their first meeting last week. The men are beginning a study of the book of Acts. With discussion assignments given to members on the Biblical, historic, and economic background of the times. The studies will be very informative. Charles Ray, James O. Cayton, and Roy McKinney, will report on their assignments at the October meeting. Every second meeting will have a featured speaker on some aspect of the course. There is still time for men of the Parish to enroll in this course, and they may do so by calling the Rector, the Rev. Hugh R. Percy, at the church.

Unitarian Church Focuses Africa as Forum Topic

The Pacific Unitarian Church of Torrance and the Manhattan Community Church of Manhattan Beach will co-sponsor a three-part Fall Forum Series. The program this evening will be held at 8 p.m. at the Manhattan Community Church, 303 Peck Ave. "South Africa in Travail" will be the topic of Mrs. Mary Louise Hooper, west coast representative for the Africa Defense and Aid Fund, when she speaks tonight. Mrs. Hooper, an American Quaker and a Phi Beta Kappa graduate of Stanford University, was in South Africa from 1955 to 1957, during which time she developed close ties with such leaders in the anti-apartheid movement as Alan Paton, Chief Albert Lutuli and Father Trevor Huddleston. It is behalf of more than 1,000 persons arrested by South African white supremacy government that Mrs. Hooper now devotes most of her efforts.

SAUCE ADDS ZEST

Combine cooked cauliflower and green peas with a tasty hollandaise sauce. Use canned sauce, adding dash of lemon juice and chopped parsley. Pour over vegetables in shallow casserole, sprinkle with paprika and buttered bread crumbs, and bake about 15 minutes in moderate oven.
